۲	Read the passage then answer the following questions. Mr. Grey liked shooting very much, but he did not get much practice at shooting, and he was not very good at it. One of his troubles was that his eyes were not very good and he had to wear glasses. When it rained and his glasses got wet, he could not see very well. One day he was invited to go out shooting bears in the mountains. It was rather a rainy day and by mistake he shot at one of the hunters and hit him in the leg. There was a court case about this, and at it the lawyer for the other man said, "Why did you shoot at Mr. Robinson?" Mr. Grey answered, "I thought that he was a bear." The lawyer asked, "When did you understand that you were wrong?" He answered, "When the bear began to shoot at me." True or false. 37.
